

Third Party and Supplier List – Data Sharing

Below is a list of third parties that we share data with for parents, pupils and visitors. In some circumstances, we may give the third party type of business rather than a company name if we feel we need to take extra cyber security measures. You may contact us directly to get further information about the nature of the processing, and more details about the company, in these circumstances. Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about data subjects with:
