This week in Kingfisher Class...

English: We were visited this week by the poet, Ash Dickinson. We enjoyed finding out about his work and how to write poems. We used his visit as inspiration for our own writing.

Maths: We have continued to learn about money. This week, we have specifically looked at how to pay and give change. We used what we have learnt to solve one-step and two-step problems.

D.T: We have had a lot of fun in our D.T lessons this week as we have investigated what it takes to design and create a 'Sensational Salad.' As part of this, we have tasted different salad items, learnt how to safely prepare vegetables, considered a design brief and then planned a sensational salad. We have reflected on how important our senses are when creating a plate of food and why it is important to eat healthily.

Notices and messages:

1. We hope everyone received an email about our class trip to Norwich Castle on Thursday 22nd January 2026. Please go to School Money to give consent and make payment for the trip.
2. Next Tuesday will be our final Forest School session as Miss Khanam will have another class after the Christmas break. We hope your child has enjoyed the sessions this term and would love to get feedback from you and your child. Please could you fill in the short questionnaire your child has brought home today and return it to a member of staff in Kingfisher Class, an adult at the gate or to the school office. Please fill it in with your child and include their opinions and experiences. Thank you

We would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
